ESALEN INSTITUTE, BIG SUR

Iconic among the spiritual-seeker set, who flock to the retreat for its renowned workshops, Esalen Institute's accommodations remained unchanged for decades until this past autumn, when interior design firm Salt+Bones updated select rustic and historic buildings using a light, respectful touch befitting of the property's significance. Workshops from $405; esalen.org.

Warm Welcomes From GLAMPING among the redwoods in Big Sur to BOUTIQUE STAYS in sun-kissed Palm Springs, these recent HOTEL OPENINGS and REVAMPS make a strong case for STAYCATIONS in the Golden State ➢

VENTANA BIG SUR'S REDWOOD RETREATS

Just when we thought the coastal getaway couldn't get any more idyllic, Ventana Big Sur's 15 glamping tents arrive, set in a redwood forest with access to the resort's services and amenities. From $325; ventanainn.com/glamping.

LAS ALCOBAS, ST. HELENA

With views of the adjacent Beringer Vineyard from some rooms, this deluxe hotel set in the heart of Napa wine country is the ideal base for exploring tasting rooms and vineyards. Be sure to return, however, to eat at famed San Francisco chef Chris Cosentino's restaurant on the premises, Acacia House. From $695; lasalcobasnapavalley.com.

PARKER PALM SPRINGS

Fans of the beloved Jonathan Adler-designed Parker don't want it to change—but hey, a respectful refresh couldn't hurt. Hugely improved glam pool cabanas, subtle changes to select fixtures and furnishings in the guest rooms and a complete remodel of the private Gene Autry Residence comprise some of the recent upgrades. From $495; theparkerpalmsprings.com.

DREAM HOLLYWOOD

Klieg lights shine even brighter in Tinseltown this month with the arrival of Dream Hollywood's 178 rooms and suites envisioned by the Rockwell Group, plus five nightlife venues and restaurants from the Tao Group, including The Highlight Room, an 11,000-square-foot rooftop terrace, lounge and restaurant replete with sweeping city views. From $300; dreamhotels.com/hollywood.

PENDRY SAN DIEGO

This much-anticipated February newcomer in the Gaslamp District from the next generation of the Montage Hotels & Resorts family mixes a contemporary and retro feel in its 317 rooms and public spaces, which include Provisional Kitchen, Café & Mercantile, a hybrid café and shop concept from L.A. retailers Raan and Lindsay Parton of Apolis and Alchemy Works. From $320; pendryhotels.com.

HOLIDAY HOUSE PALM SPRINGS

The team behind SoCal boutique getaway faves Sparrows Lodge and Casa Laguna enlisted celeb designer Mark D. Sikes to revive this intimate downtown Palm Springs charmer, opening this April. Sikes' refined yet playful sensibility is visible in the bold mix of patterns and the many shades of blue used throughout the 28 rooms, each complete with an eating nook and a fridge. From $199; holidayhouseps.com.

LOS ANGELES

Watch It Unfold

Take a straw hat on vacation and it's bound to get crushed. Understanding this all too well, L.A.-based milliner Janessa Leoné has developed packable toppers: the Charlotte, Marcell and Adriana fedoras and the Alaia bolero. "We created this straw with an incredibly durable fiber at its core," she says. Roll the hat and it returns to its intended shape. 8840 Washington Blvd. #106, Culver City, 310-256-2296; janessaleone.com.

CAMBRIA BEACH LODGE

Cheerful, relaxed style (think whitewashed walls and earthy boho textures), Linus bikes and local wines from Paso Robles await at this 27-room Central Coast hotel that debuted on Moonstone Beach last fall. Surfboards welcome. From $179; cambriabeachlodge.com.
